And that's a wrap! The 2022 Microsoft Dynamics Community Summit North America was back in a big way this year and made it one for the books. Our skilled team filled the conference schedule with skilled sessions and a unique booth experience unlike the Conference has seen. To those that stop by our booth to catch up with our #WickedlySmart consultants, we say see you again next year!

Yesterday was incredible! We loved meeting and speaking with those who stopped by our booth (#1000)!

This is what our Marketing Manager, Roland Chi has to say about day one so far:

"The first day was great! We kicked off with a full room for our speaking session on BC and we got to reconnect with many partners during the welcome reception!"
